

Anti-Money Laundering Office Notification

Re: Integrity Intent on Anti-Money Laundering Office Management

Anti-Money Laundering Office (AMLO) hereby declares the integrity intention for transparency and accountability in accordance with the good governance philosophy. AMLO will take full responsibility in order to create public confidence that all actions of Anti-Money Laundering Office will be conducted morally with following 6 aspects of good governance;

1. Transparency: provide, disclose and allow access to all information regarding procurement as well as other information relating to duties of the organization, providing opportunity for the public to scrutinize and participate in its work and solve problems and complaint reported by stakeholders.

2. Accountability: withholding management integrity intent and be responsible to all action.

3. Corruption-free: ensuring that the organization is free of corruption, in aspects of both policy and malfeasance, by ensuring non-abusive of power for others' benefit or demanding bribe.

4. Organizational virtue and culture: establish and instill integrity culture, intolerant to all kinds of corruption, be ashamed and afraid for any corrupted act, having measures for prevention and suppression of corruption as well as conflict of interests.

5. Organizational Morale: establish clear work standards, uphold ethic and moral in management in personnel, budgetary, designation and work environment.

6. Internal communication: disclose or inform any management policies in advance, accept officers' opinions and suggestions.

Please be informed accordingly

Given on 25 January 2017

General (sign)

(Chaiya Siriamphankul)

Secretary-General of Anti-Money Laundering Board